McMILLEN – ELMORE ERA

Tom McMillen and Lenny Elmore finish their careers at Maryland as co-captains for the 1973-74 season. In their two previous varsity seasons, the duo have led the Terrapins to 50 wins, a National Invitational Tournament triumph and to the Eastern NCAA Regional Championship game.

McMillen will be shooting for his third All-American berth. He was a member of the U.S. Olympic team and is a mere 117 points away from the University's all-time career scoring record.

Elmore has been called by many the backbone of the Maryland teams for his shot-blocking and overall center play. He played a vital role in the U.S. All-Stars games against the Russians and won second team All-ACC honors despite injuries last season.

With such a background, the final chapter in the McMillen-Elmore era at the University looms to be a very exciting one.

Dear Coach,

Once again the committee would like to thank you and your staff for all the wonderful help and the basketballs that were auctioned off at the radiothon. We are sure that you know the money raised for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital from the radiothon is most appreciated and we are once again most grateful to you all for your support.

Enclosed are two pictures for Tom McMillen and Lenny Elmore and our thanks to them both for such wonderful cooperation.

Sincerely,

Mary Alice Swengros

HEAD COACH
CHARLES G. "LEFTY" DRIESELL

There is only one Charles G. "Lefty" Driesell who started his career as a Junior Varsity Coach at Granby High School in Norfolk, Virginia, and continued on to become the best floor mentor in the history of the state with 59 consecutive wins at nearby Newport News High School.

Lefty moved on to the dismal situation at Davidson College where his court techniques once again contributed to a cinderella story and overnight little Davidson was a national power. From Davidson the then nationally renowned Driesell took over the head job at the University of Maryland where in the past two seasons he has won the N.I.T. and represented the tough Atlantic Coach Conference in the Eastern Regionals.

Driesell's teams are earmarked by their pro oriented style of play featuring an aggressive man to man defense, an awesome board control and exciting fast break offense called by one pro scout as "the most pro designed program in the country."

While on the way to winning 50 games and ranking as one of the top 5 winning coaches in the country over the past two seasons, the popular Duke graduate has now amassed 253 wins against 102 losses while having the phenomenal record of having 5 teams ranked in the top ten final poll; more than any other coach in the ACC.

A typical day in the life of Lefty may start with an early morning phone call from one of his former assistants, like George Raveling or Terry Holland, for advice and guidance concerning their head coaching jobs.

One may next see him walking on campus with his arms over the shoulders of Billy Hahn or Jap Trimble as only the fatherly Driesell could do. Many hours on the phone often encompass the early afternoon, varying from a call for Tom McMillen concerning his endorsement for the Rhodes Scholarship to a call from Rich Porac concerning dental school. Many are conversations with Red Auerbach about one of the players or Driesell's awesome pro offense.

Practice often finds Lefty at his favorite location—coaching with a blending of intenseness and perfection. He moves over the floor, from showing power moves to Elmore to demonstrating a rocker step to Lucas.

His day is always finished with a continuation of film study in his den, many times until 3 or 4 a.m. He has spent thousands of hours at the projector. Coach Driesell's week always ends with a Sunday breakfast for the team, assistants and their wives at the Driesell home.

After breakfast Coach Driesell will always be seen with his attractice wife Joyce, and their children Patty, Pam, Carolyn and Charles going to the Colesville Presbyterian Church of which they are members. He is also a founding member of the Branch Richey Associated Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Driesell is a very academic man. He was an honor student at Granby High School in Norfolk, Va. and he made the Dean's List at Duke University where he received his B.A. Lefty is also a member of Kappa Delta Pi Honorary at William and Mary College, where he received his Master's in Education. He is a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma Honorary at Maryland. He is listed in the Who's Who in the South and the Directory of International Biography.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JIM KEHOE

James H. Kehoe became Director of Athletics at the University of Maryland July 1, 1969, upon the retirement of William W. Cobey, who had held the post since 1956. In his first year as AD the Terps won 100 athletic contests, six of the 12 ACC team titles and captured the ACC's Carmichael Cup for the seventh time.

In his third year at the helm of the Maryland athletic program the Terrapins won their first NATIONAL TITLE in basketball as they captured the National Invitational Tournament Championship. It was Kehoe who lured Coach Lefty Driesell to Maryland as the Terp basketball coach.

He obtained the services of Jerry Claiborne to guide the Terrapin Football fortunes in 1972 and the program took an immediate leap forward, recording the best record in 10 years, the most points scored in 18 years and advancing from last to first in the ACC in total defense.

The 1972-73 season saw another significant step in the direction Kehoe has aimed for. The Maryland Educational Foundation under the direction of Tom Fields, another Kehoe recruit, contributed over 250,000 dollars to the Maryland athletic program and the Terrapin Club increased its membership to nearly 900.

In addition the Terps won 108 of 164 contests, reached the finals of the NCAA Eastern Regional Basketball Tournament for the first time and won the National Championship in Lacrosse. Five more ACC Championships increased the Maryland total to 114, more than double the total recorded by runner-up North Carolina with 52.

As Maryland track coach for 23 years, Kehoe saw his teams capture the Atlantic Coast Conference championship in all but one year of the ACC's existence.

In 1954, first year of the conference, Maryland took the conference crown. After North Carolina won the title in 1955, Kehoe's teams regained the championship which Maryland has now held for 16 straight years.

Since he became head track and cross country coach in 1946, Kehoe has directed his teams to a total of 47 Southern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference championships.

In dual meet competition his teams were undefeated for the past eight years, and the track team had a winning streak of 27 straight victories and the cross country team 23 at his retirement.

Maryland won the I.C.4-A. track title in 1965, '66, and '69 to claim Eastern track supremacy.

Perhaps Kehoe's greater moment was reserved for his final season. In his final meet as head coach, by the margin of a single point, Maryland defeated heavily favored Villanova for the I.C.4-A. outdoor championship. By his own admission Kehoe declared this was his greatest track victory during his 25 years of coaching.

A native of Bel Air, Maryland where he starred in several sports, Kehoe entered Maryland in 1936 and concentrated on track and cross country. He lettered in all three of his varsity seasons, was undefeated in dual meet competition during this period, and won several Southern Conference titles in indoor and outdoor competition, as well as holding University records in the 880 yard and two mile runs.

While a student at Maryland Kehoe was president of the Men's League and a member of Omicron Delta Kappa National Honorary Fraternity. His responsibilities at Maryland prior to his appointment as Athletic Director included: Head Track and Cross Country Coach, Associate Professor of Physical Education, and Director of Intramural Athletics. He also holds an Honorary Doctors Degree from Steed College in Tennessee.

During World War II Kehoe served as an officer with the 81st Infantry Division in the Pacific, rising from the rank of private to lieutenant colonel upon retirement. He participated in the Philippine Islands and Central Pacific Campaigns and was awarded the Bronze Star, American Service Medal, Asiatic Pacific Medal, Victory Medal, and Philippine Liberation Medal while in service.

Kehoe is married to the former Barbara Riggs England, a 1943 Maryland graduate. The Kehoes have four children: daughters Courtney Ann 27, Barbara Sue 25, Mary Lou 19, and a son Jim 26. Courtney Ann and Jim are graduates of the University.

DAVE PRITCHETT, ASSISTANT COACH

Dave Pritchett comes to the University of Maryland as one of the most sought after assistant coaches in the country.

Whether it be coaching or teaching on the floor to diagramming styles of play at one of the hundreds of coaching clinics he had attended, it all leads to one simple statement . . . Dave Pritchett is a winner.

Every program Pritchett has ever been associated with moved to the top with over 20 game winning seasons within two years after his arrival on the scene. He is widely known for his organizational ability and great love and rapport with the players and staff.

"The most forming day in my life was when Coach Driesell called and gave me a chance to be associated with him at the University of Maryland. Coach Driesell, without question, possesses the finest basketball mind in the game today and he is the outstanding basketball man of our times.

"It has been my life long ambition to be associated with a man of Coach Driesell's ability. I have always wanted to study under such a person, who through his thousands of hours of studying films and constant clinic study is so very talented on the floor."

Coach Pritchett came to Maryland from Boston College where he served as the top varsity assistant over the past two years. Before Boston College, Dave served as assistant at Bluefield State College and Virginia Commonwealth University. His Bluefield State freshmen still hold the distinction of being the only undefeated team in its history.

Dave in a rare moment away from basketball will always be found at home with his wife, Judith Ann, and their three sons, Roger, David and Charles.

JOE HARRINGTON, ASSISTANT COACH

Joe Harrington has been associated with Maryland Basketball for the past ten years. He came to Maryland as a High School All-American from Morse High School in Bath, Maine. During his playing career, he was first-team and Co-Captain for the Terps, and a pro draft selection of the World Champion Boston Celtics.

While Harrington was working on his master's in Physical Education, Coach Driesell took over as Head Coach and hired Joe as an assistant. "He's one of the most loyal and hard-working assistants I ever had," says Coach Driesell. "With his basketball knowledge and dedication to the game, I believe he has an excellent future in the coaching profession."

Harrington feels, "As a player in the pre-Driesell era, and now as an assistant coach, I can tell that the Maryland basketball program has taken a fundamental step forward and is still making great progress. I attribute this to Coach's unique ability to personally motivate, inspire, and work with each and every one of us involved with the Maryland basketball program. Whether it is discussing a player's academic goals with a professor, coaching on the floor of Cole Field House, or speaking to the players, parents, alumni and friends at the annual basketball banquet, Coach Driesell's mystique comes through.

I originally chose Maryland for its academic excellence and awesome potential in basketball. Coach Driesell's personal influence with all of us has made this potential a reality."

Coach Harrington is married to the former Ann Schopfer who is also a graduate of the University of Maryland. Ann will graduate from the University of Maryland Law School this spring.

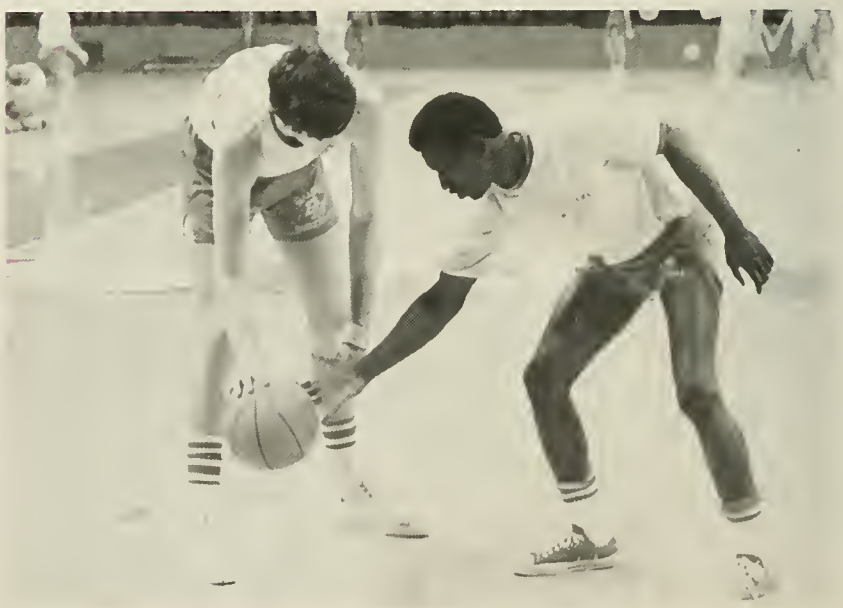
HOWARD WHITE, ASSISTANT COACH

Howard White joins the Maryland coaching staff after having come to the Maryland program when Coach Driesell first came to Maryland. White came to Maryland with awesome credentials; he was everybody's All-American. He contributed a great deal to the Maryland program as a player under Driesell, the coach. White now works with Driesell, as Driesell the hard worker and organizer.

White says that "Driesell is a tremendous person to be associated with, an excellent floor coach as well as a great individual." He also comments on the way that Driesell's winning ways have carried over to the players he has had under him and also to the people that have been associated with him.

White will add a new dimension to the Maryland program and should learn much under the fellowship of Head Coach, Charles Driesell. White's comment on this issue are that "any person that can come under the influence of a magnanimous leader, such as Driesell, should be better prepared for any future endeavor in which they chose to pursue—whether it's coaching or selling books. Lefty just seems to have these innate qualities to turn a person into a winner in the battle field of life, where it really counts the most."

White will be working with guards in the Maryland program. He will be teaching and working with them on different aspects and phases of play. White feels that "the Maryland guards should dominate and take control and be very tough."



JOHN KOCHAN, GRADUATE ASSISTANT

John Kochan received his B.A. from the City University of New York (Lehman College branch) and is continuing his graduate education here at the University of Maryland. He will receive his master's degree in June in Physical Education with an emphasis on Sport Psychology.

During his athletic career at Lehman, he captained both the basketball and baseball teams. In his junior year, he was voted the MVP in both.

John's involvement with the basketball program will consist of scouting, evaluation of prospective players and assisting in practice.

John says, "The University of Maryland basketball season, with its opener against UCLA, is an indication of the direction and achievements that have been reached. National recognition has already been attained, and a National Championship is our goal for this coming season.

Coach Driesell is not only a successful coach but a first-class individual and man who has total admiration and dedication from his entire staff."

John is married to the former Jane Wolf, who is an art teacher in the Prince Georges County School System.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR MARYLAND EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

Thomas M. Fields

When Jim Kehoe assumed the duties as Director of Athletics at the University of Maryland he realized that financial stability was absolutely necessary to achieve the goals he set for Maryland athletics.

He went after one man, and one man only, to head the Maryland Educational Foundation and as usual he was successful. He lured Thomas M. Fields into retirement from the United States Marine Corps where he had devoted 28 years of distinguished service.

The former Maryland All-American distance runner and teammate of Kehoe's took over his duties at Maryland in 1970 and his success has been phenomenal.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1970 contributions to the Maryland Educational Foundation totaled approximately $30,000. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1973 contributions totaled just over $260,000, an increase of over 800 percent.

During the past year the Terrapin Club renewed 96 percent of their contributions and the membership now stands at 865, quite a jump from the 132 original members.

Of the 865 members, one is a life member ($10,000 contribution), 63 are Diamondback members ($1,000 annual contribution) and 203 are Gold Members ($500 annual contribution).

The goal set by Colonel Fields the past year was $250,000 and he surpassed that figure although many termed it an unrealistic goal. This coming year he has set a goal of $350,000 and a Terrapin Club membership of over 1,000.

With the hard work and dedication he has contributed to the program in the past he will achieve that goal as well.

Colonel Fields' service to his country followed the same pattern he established as a track star at Maryland and recently as a University Administrator. During World War II he served in combat on Guadalcanal, Vella Lavella, Bougainville and Iwo Jima. He also served in Korea and Vietnam and at the time of his retirement was the Deputy Director of Information, Headquarters Marine Corps.

Colonel Fields and his wife, the former Patricia T. Hansel, have four children. Thomas M. Jr. will join the Maryland Track team this fall after a successful career at Northwestern High as a distance runner. Karen is 17, Lori 15 and David 13.

THE TEAM

OWEN BROWN

6-9, 205, 20, Junior

LaGrange, Illinois

Owen Brown saw action in 29 of Maryland's 30 games last season and moves into his junior year as one of the contenders for the two spots left open in the Terrapins' lineup via graduation. He can play either wing or low post and possesses exceptional speed, quickness and ball handling ability for a man of his size. He is also a good shot blocker. Owen led the Maryland freshman team in scoring two seasons ago with a 21.3 average and also collected 11.8 rebounds a game. Last year he had a high game of 19 points against Fordham In high school he scored over 1500 in his career and was selected player of the year in Illinois. He chose Maryland over 250 scholarship offers. Owen wants to enter criminal law after his playing days at Maryland. He will be a potent factor for the Terps after he recovers from a broken foot suffered at the start of practice.

LEN ELMORE

6-9, 232, 21, Senior

Springfield Gardens, New York

Had an excellent junior year although hampered by injuries early in the season and missing four games at the close of the season. Suffered a broken bone in his foot in the Duke game on February 24. The Terps lost two of the four games he did not play in.

After missing three games he played in the second game of the ACC tournament on March 9 against Wake Forest scoring 12 points and pulling in nine rebounds with a special support on his foot. After Maryland had reached the finals of the ACC tournament and had been designated to represent the ACC in the NCAA tournament he was held out of the North Carolina State game that Maryland lost 76-74. A week later he played in the NCAA tournament with the same support and his 12 of 21 shots, scored 10 points against Syracuse and 14 against Providence, pulled in 24 rebounds and seventh in the voting for the Eastern Regional All-Tournament team.

He answered a SOS from the United States team, joining the US All-Stars for the final three games of the series against the Russians and was outstanding.

His shot blocking and ability to intimidate the apponents was vital to the Terp success throughout the season. Coach Lefty Driesell called him "the best shot-blocker to ever play in the ACC" and credits many of his goal tending calls to the fact that his timing is so perfect that many times the officials just cannot believe it was a legitimate block.

For the season he averaged 10 points a game and 11.2 rebounds, second in the ACC. He pulled in 290 rebounds in 26 games and now has 637 rebounds and 609 points in two years.

He was named the "Most Valuable Player" of the Terps for 1972-73 and also "The Best Defensive Player".

During his summers he has worked with the Police Athletic League's play-street program as a director in New York City. He has continued this work throughout his career at Maryland where he is a pre-law major.

BILLY HAHN

5-10, 155, 20, Junior

Mishawaka, Indiana

Billy Hahn, the shortest of the Terrapins, knows his way around the bucket by leading Maryland in shooting percentage at 71.4 while seeing action in 16 of the Terrapins' games. He is the first Maryland player from basketball-rich Indiana. He is a good point man with his ability to run an offense and hand out assists. As a freshman, Billy averaged seven assists a game while hitting 49 per cent of his shots for a 9.1 average. He is extremely quick and plays a hard nose type of defense. Billy hopes to teach and coach after graduation with his major interest in math.

MAURICE HOWARD

6-2, 170, 20, Sophomore

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Maurice Howard showed the ability to play either at the point or wing positions. As a freshman last season he saw action in 29 of the 30 games. Maurice is an exceptional ball handler and an accurate shooter up to 20 feet. He has speed and good moves plus a good court sense. He also has the ability to hit the open man. Maurice was the Philadelphia player-of-the-year and averaged 21.5 points a game. He was a three time all-city selection and was a high school All-American. He is expected to be a prime challenge for one of the wing positions left open in the Terrapins' starting lineup by graduation.

JOHN LUCAS

6-4, 175, 19, Sophomore

Durham, North Carolina

It takes a lot of talent and poise to step in as the starting point man on one of the nation's top eight teams as a freshman but John Lucas did that and more last year for the Terrapins. He finished the season on the All-Atlantic Coast Conference tournament and was sixth on the NCAA Eastern Regional Tournament team. In his first two games as a Maryland Terrapin John set a school record with 12 consecutive shots without a miss. He made All-American freshman teams and is a pre-season All-American sophomore. He finished the season with a 14.2 scoring average, the third best on the team and also hit 53.8 percent of his shots. He also handed out a team high of 178 assists. John is amazingly quick and is an outstanding passer, defensive player and a great shooter. He has uncanny ability to get off the good shot in a crowd. In high school, John was an honor student and averaged 34.5 points a game, breaking Pete Maravich's North Carolina scoring record. In addition to his basketball, he was a member of the junior Davis Cup tennis team. This summer John won the Eastern Intercollegiate Tennis Championships and was a member of the ACC number one doubles champions. Still just a sophomore, John is one of the bright stars in the Maryland attack.

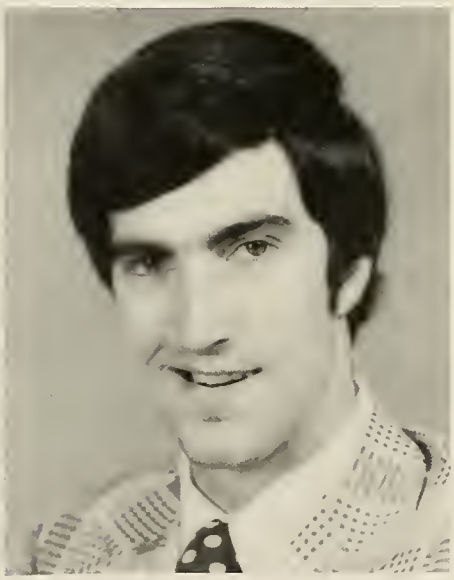
TOM McMILLEN

6-11, 215, 21, Senior

Mansfield, Pennsylvania



The "Most Outstanding and Hardest Working" basketball player to ever play at the University of Maryland. Works just as hard in practice, in the classroom and in his many other activities as he does under game conditions.

He ranks as the fourth all-time scorer in Maryland Basketball history with 1,283 points, just 17 behind his brother Jay and 114 behind Gene Shue, the all-time scorer.

He made just about all of the All-American lists this past season and many his sophomore year. He has twice been named to the Academic-All-American team as a pre-med major.

He was recently named to Maryland Governor Marvin Mandel's Commission on Student Affairs at College Park as the Chairman of the Commission. He also serves as Chairman of the Commission covering 22 college campuses in the state of Maryland.

He still serves on President Richard Nixon's 15-member Council on Physical Fitness and Sports.

This past season he was named FIRST TEAM All-Atlantic Coast Conference, All-ACC Tournament, All-Eastern Regional Tournament and the MVP of the Maryland Invitational Tournament. As a Sophomore he was named the "Outstanding Player" in the NIT.

He was ranked among the leaders in the ACC in every offensive category, third in scoring with a 21.2 average, second in field goal percentage .585, fourth in rebounding with 284 for a 9.8 average and ninth in free throw shooting with .800 percentage.

He was a member of the Olympic team but declined to participate in the US-Russian series because of his demanding class schedule at the time.

Devotes many hours to charity drives and speaking at clubs, awards banquets, various youth groups and alumni groups.

In Eastern Regional Tournament he hit 18 of 26 shot from the field, 7 of 7 from the free throw line for 43 points, pulled in 12 rebounds and played 40 minutes against Proxidence and 39 against Syracuse, more playing time than any other player in the tournament.

RICH PORAC

6-0, 178, 21, Senior

Monroeville, Pennsylvania

Rich Porac is an excellent ball handler and defensive player at the point position for the Terrapins. He saw action in 24 games last year and handed out an assist a game. He hit on 48.3 percent of his shots. Rich still holds the Maryland freshman assist record with 19 in a game against Virginia and averaged 11 his freshman year to demonstrate his ability to run an offense and to hit the open man. On defensive he is a hustle type so necessary to the Maryland game plan. Rich is a Pre-Dentistry major.

TOM ROY

6-9, 210, 20, Junior

South Windsor, Connecticut

Tom Roy is a prime candidate for one of the low posts spots in the Maryland attack this year and the junior should do an excellent job in the spot. Tom is a potent inside force with the emphasis on good physical effort. Tom knows to get up for games as two of his best rebounding contests game against Atlantic Coast Conference rivals North Carolina and North Carolina State. As a freshman Tom averaged 12.7 rebounds a game. He can also shoot with a 51.7 percentage. Tom came from high school as the all time New England scorer after leading his school to two state championships. He would like to continue his playing days after college in the professional ranks.

JAP TRIMBLE

6-3, 181, 21, Junior

New York, New York

Jap sat out last season with a knee injury but should be ready for the 1973-74 year. He should be a frequent starter at a wing position. Jap is an outstanding defensive player with quickness and jumping ability. He also has an excellent reputation as a one-on-one player. In both his freshman and sophomore years, he averaged over 52 percent shooting and had a 20 point average as a frosh. Jap was a high school All-American. He is a sociology major and wants to become an FBI agent upon graduation.

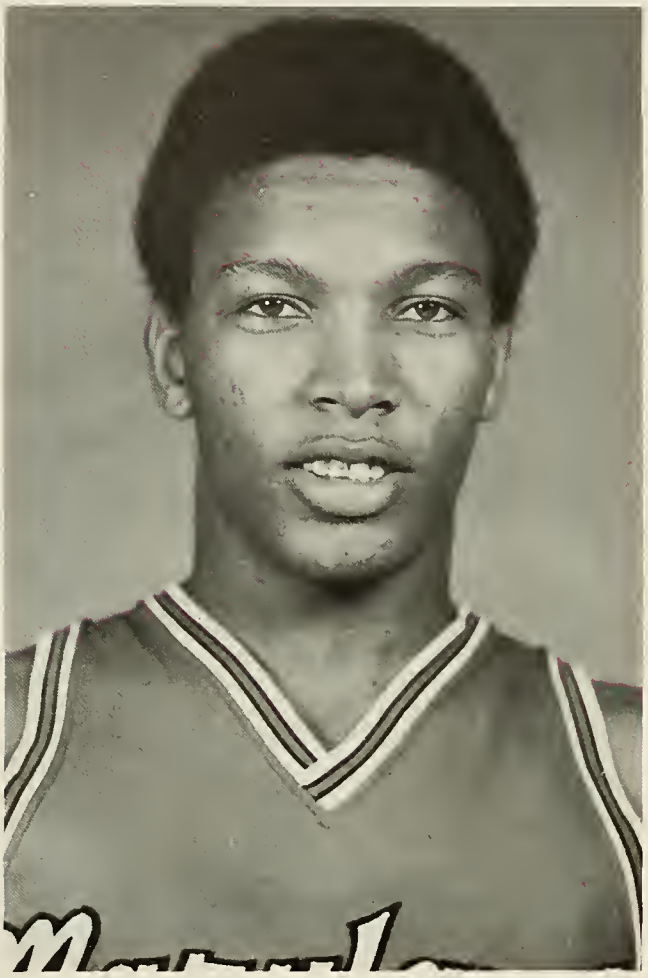
Did Not Play in 1972-73 Due to Injury

WILSON WASHINGTON

6-8, , 18, Freshman

Norfolk, Virginia



Wilson Washington comes to Maryland with a defensive play and shot blocking credentials. He scored 19.4 points a game and averaged 14 rebounds a contest for Booker T. Washington High School, leading them to a 23-3 mark. He was an All-Metropolitan selection and the outstanding player of the city. He was also the Most Valuable Player in the Eastern District Tournament for Virginia. Wilson still has some things to learn about inside work after growing from a 6-4 junior to his present 6-8. He was a B student in high school.

TV – RADIO

Russ Potts, Maryland's Sports Promotions Director, has built in a few years one of the nation's largest radio and TV networks for the Terrapin basketball games.

A 36 station radio network will carry all of the season's action and follow the Terps through year-end tournament play. The flagship station for Maryland basketball will be WMAL in Washington, D.C. Steve Gilmartin, a recipient of numerous broadcasting honors, will handle the play by play.

A total of 16 games will be telecast in the Washington-Baltimore area. Three games, UCLA on Dec. 1, North Carolina State on Jan. 13 and North Carolina on Jan. 26, will be seen on national television.

Six games will be carried regionally as the Atlantic Coast Conference game of the week.

Over the past three years the University of Maryland has been on national television more than any other school in the nation. Last year's North Carolina State game was played on Super Bowl Sunday and drew 750,000 viewers in the Washington, D.C. area alone!

SCOUTING REPORT

BOSTON COLLEGE

Possible Opponent in Maryland Invitational Tourney—Dec. 28-29

With Boston College's first appearance in the Maryland Invitational Tournament, you could very well see them in the finals come Saturday night.

Two outstanding recruits along with a sophomore who missed all of last season with injuries can make Boston College one of the outstanding teams in the East this year.

Coach Bob Zuffelato certainly can look forward to a winning season and, quite possibly, a post-season tournament berth.

The two newcomers who will provide immediate help are 6'11 freshman Paul Berwanger and 6'2 junior college transfer Mel Welden. Berwanger was a prep All-American and could develop into one of the best big men in college ball, while Welden was a first team junior college All-American at Mercer County Community College, leading the team to the National Championshihip.

Joining the Eagles after sitting out the 1972-73 campaign with an Achilles tendon injury is 6'8 forward Syd Sheppard, who can rebound with anyone in the country.

To go with trio, Zuffelato has eight returning lettermen, including 6'0 guard Jere Nolan (11.8) the squad's MVP last season. He'll likely team with Welden in the backcourt.

The other front court spot will go to 6'6 sophomore Bob Carrington (12.2 pts. and 6.7 rebs), 6'5 senior Dan Kilcullen (12.0) or 6'6 senior Mark Raterink (13.1 pts. and 7.2 rebs). Oother lettermen include Richie Burke (1.5), 6'6 sophomore Wilfred Morrison (9.4 pts. and 7.0 rebs), 6'2 sophomore Willie Taylor (3.0) and 6'2 senior Dave Ulrich (3.5).

CANISIUS

Home—Jan. 22—8:00 P.M.

Despite losing some good players through graduation, Canisius could very well be stronger this year. The first obvious reason is tall, talented Charlie Jordan, 6' 9" and 230 lbs. He is reputed to be the best big man ever to enter Canisius, averaging 24 points and 20 rebounds a game for the frosh. Back is second-leading scorer and leading rebounder Mel Montgomery 6' 5". Junior Mike Robert 5' 11" is expected to push for a starting guard spot this year. Kevin Townsel 6' 7" junior, will give Canisius more strength as will freshman recruit 6' 8" Rick Fredericks. Two other freshmen include Bill Dressel 6' 5" and Jim Skiba 6' 0".

We don't play Canisius until late in January. This will give them valuable experience for their young players. With Jordan, one of the country's best big men, and Montgomery, who was either the leading scorer or rebounder in 15 games last year, this game is really important. Naturally, I'm glad we are playing them here in Cole Field House.

CLEMSON

Home—Jan. 5 —3:00 P.M.
Away—Feb. 16—1:00 P.M.

Clemson University should have the best basketball team since the Mahaffey days. They will be led by junion Van Gregg 6' 2" lefthander from Columbus, Ohio, who averaged 13 points per game last year. Also back from last year's starting team is 6' 6" Jeff Reisinger, a senior from Kingston, Ohio, who averaged 11.7 points per game and was their second leading rebounder. What will make Clemson a threat is a freshman by the name of Wayne Riley, 7' 1", 215 lbs. from Cordelia, Georgia who average 27.5 points per game last year in high school and 20.5 rebounds and 4 assists. This young man was recruited by every major college in the country and played in several national All-Star Games and was considered by many to be the Number One high school center in America last year. Bruce Harmon is another returnee from the junior varsity who averaged 20.2 points per game and was a starter and stand-out in the nationally renowned Dapper Dan Tournament as a high school senior. He was recruited heavily by Maryland, North Carolina and many other ACC schools. 6' 9", 240 lbs. Wayne Croft also returns from the varsity. Wayne gave us a great deal of trouble last year with his board play and inside offensive game. Terrell Suit, a 5' 9" guard who started last year and averaged 7.1 points per game, will also return. Terrell is a great outside shooter. Look for Jo Jo Bethea, a junior college transfer from Newport News, Virginia to push for a backcourt starting position. Also, David Brown, 6' 8" freshman from York, Pennsylvania, averaged 22 points per game in high school, and 13 rebounds a game. The Tigers are going to be improved, definitely over last year's 12-14 record.

DUKE

Home—Feb. 2 —2:00 P.M.
Away—Feb. 23—8:00 P.M.

First year coach Neil McGeachy will take over with nine of last year's top 10 players back. Returning is leading scoring and All-ACC 6' 10" Chris Redding. Redding (16.9 points average) set a Duke free throw percentage record with a .844 percentage. Last year's top rebounder, 6' 8" junior Bob Fleischer (11 pts., 8.5 reb.) gave us fits last year, scoring 12 and 22 points. The third spot up front will probably go to an underrated sophomore 6' 9" Willie Hodge.

Kevin Billerman, 6' 2" junior (8.2 pts.), will take over the quarterbacking duties and most likely be joined by 6' 2" sophomore and former prep All-American David O'Connell.

For backup help, there's 5′ 11″ senior Jeff Burdett, 6′ 5″ junior swingman Bill Suk, 6′ 4″ forward Pete Kramer, and sophomores 6′ 2″ Paul Fox, Bob Cook, 6′ 6″, and Terry Chili 6′ 9″. Freshmen include 6′ 8″ Mark Crow, Edgar Burch 6′ 2″ and Tate Armstrong 6′ 2″.

Duke should bounce back from their 12-14 record of last year and have a sound basketball team this season. We split with Duke last year and must be ready for the Blue Devils this season.

DUQUESNE

Home—Feb. 20—8:00 P.M.

Pre-season All-American Lionel Billingy 6′ 9″ will make Duquesne an awesome opponent this year. Billingy will become the top rebounder in the school's history, setting the single game record of 29 rebounds. Last season he average 14.9 points and 13.6 rebounds. Also back is Oscar Jackson, 6′ 2″ junior guard, with a 13.4 point average and who had 12 against Maryland. Duquesne is traditionally known for having great guards and Jackson is one of their finest. Junior 6′ 6″ Don McLane will most likely start at forward, along with junior Dave Palvich, 6′ 5″. In the backcourt with Jackson could be Jack Yun 6′ 4″ a Junior. Sophomores Murray Meikenhous 6′ 10″ and Ray Milligan 6′ 9″ will back up Billingy at the center position. Freshman recruits are led by highly recruited and great scorer Joe Guilfoyle 6′ 0″ from Cleveland. Other freshmen include Don Gambridge 6′ 8″, Bill Piekarski and John Werner, both 6′ 7″, Don Maser 6′ 5″ and Norm Nixon 6′ 2″. The top sophomore is letterman Roland Jones 6′ 4″ with a 6.4 average.

The Dukes are traditionally strong and this year is no exception. Coming off a 16-8 season, they will be equally strong this year.

EASTERN KENTUCKY

Home—Dec. 5—8:00 P.M.

First year coach Bob Mulcahy inherits a team that finished 12-13 overall last year. Despite losing three starters Coach Mulcahy will have a good nucleus of seven lettermen and some fine young players.

Back is 6′ 5″ senior forward and co-captain Robert Brooks averaging 12.4 points and 2nd in rebounds. Sophomore guard Carl Brown with 6.5 pts. and 10.6 rebounds is expected to pick up the slack due to graduation. The other lettermen include co-captains Rich Stansel 6′ 5, Bob Watkins 6′ 5, Kevin Kok 6′ 6, Ron Smith 6′ 0 and Craig Turner 6′ 2.

Eastern Kentucky optimism centers around 6′ 9 redshirt Howard Brown, a likely starter, and transfer G. W. Newson. Two outstanding players from the junior varsity will definitely be heard from, Jimmy Segar 6′ 3 (21.4 average) and 6′ 8 Bill Gaines 6′ 8 (20.8 pts.). Freshman players Denny Barbour 6′ 0 and 6′ 6 Dave Routt will also help Eastern. Barbour averaged 16 points and led in assists while Routt averaged 13.1 points and 13.5 rebounds.

Eastern Kentucky should improve on last year's record and under Coach Mulcahy develop into a solid program.

FORDHAM

Home—Jan. 17—8:00 P.M.

Fordham is a tough club. The Rams were only 13-16 last year but played 12 teams that entered post-season tournaments! With a young club Fordham will be a tough opponent by the time the Rams reach College Park.

The backcourt is set with two solid starters. Frank Heyward is a 6-3 senior who averaged 10.9 points a game while Kevin Moriarty is a 6-0 junior who averaged 8.1 points.

At center will be a 6-8 junior, Darryl Brown. He averaged 11.5 points and 8.5 rebounds last year. Brown is a highly-touted player and a real comer. Two sophomores, Kevin Collins and Bob Wymbs, appear to have the inside track on the forward jobs. Collins is 6-8 and Wymbs is 6-7.

One of the big Ram problems is the lack of solid reserves behind the starters. Three freshmen were recruited and could see action. John O'Neil, at 6-5, and Paul Smith, at 6-7, will be used on the front line. Stan Frankowski is a 6-3 guard who could turn into a good one.

If the sophomore forwards jell, Fordham will have a really tough team but one that will have to play an iron man game.

GEORGETOWN

Home—Dec. 11—8:00 P.M.

Much improved Georgetown is a young ball team, but the 1973-74 campaign should be the most successful in recent years. They have fourteen lettermen returning, which include their top eight scorers and rebounders. Two of the East's top sophomores, Merlin Wilson, 6′ 9″ and John Smith, 6′ 0″, will head this year's team. Wilson averaged 12.7 points and 14.1 rebounds last year, but had 10 points and 15 rebounds against Maryland. Smith averaged 13 points per game, but had 15 points against us. Junior Mark Gallagher, 6′ 5″, who has been injured in the past, should really come into his own this year. Starters, sophomores Mike Stokes 6′ 1″ (15 points against Md.) and Greg Brooks, 6′ 9″, who scored 17 points against us last year, will give the Hoyas additional scoring and rebounding strength, and senior Tim Lambour, 5′ 9″, will continue to give guard strength. Freshmen signees include Larry Long, 6′ 6″, Art Williamson, 6′ 8″, Alonzo Holloway, 6′ 0″ and Mike McDermott, 6′ 4″.

Being very familiar with Georgetown's personnel, I'd say the Hoyas will definitely improve on last year's 12-14 record and will be a tough game for us.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

At Capital Center—Feb. 9—8:00 P.M.

Last year the Colonels were 17-9 making it the school's most successful campaign in the past 17 years. This year they could very well improve that in post-season play, as Coach Carl Sloan has four starters returning (7 of the top 10 players returning).

G.W. will be led by top scoring junior Pat Tallent 6′ 3″ (18.8 point average) and leading rebounder 6′ 11″ junior Clyde Burwell (13.1 pt. aver., 10.7 rebounds, 109 blacked shots). Tallent hit for 20 points against us last year.

Also returning is 6′ 2 guard Keith Morris who's an excellent playmaker and defensive ace. Junior Haviland Harper 6′ 5 (12 pt. average) will start at one forward position. Greg Miller is likely to start at the other forward spot. The 6′ 5 sophomore averaged 18.9 points and 10.2 rebounds for the junior varsity. Letterman 6′ 4″ senior Tom Rosepink and 6′ 6 junior Bob Shanta may push for a starting forward spot.

Coach Sloan is excited about an excellent recruiting year as they landed 7′ 1 Kevin Hall, 6′ 10 Jon Van Dorn, and 6′ 9 Dave Bate. Also signing were guards, John Holloran 6′ 1 and Richard Waldron 6′ 0.

The Colonels are a strong basketball team whom we beat by only nine points a year ago. This year's game in the new Largo Sports Arena promises to be a good one.

HOLY CROSS

First Round Opponent in Maryland Invitational Tourney—Dec. 28-29—7:00 P.M.

Holy Cross lost two starters who combined for 2,504 career points and their playmaker to graduation. Hence 1973 will probably be a rebuilding year for the Crusaders.

Two starters do return from last year's 9-17 squad. Forward Malcolm Moulton is a 6-5 senior. He averaged 15 points and seven rebounds a game last year. Guard King Gaskins is just a sophomore but the 6-1 backcourter averaged 13.7 last year. Both Moulton and Gaskins had 30 point nights so the scoring potential is there.

The rest of the front court is a question and the key to the Crusaders' season. Senior John Burdis has spent two years on the bench but is counted on to come through this year. Burdis has the height, 7-0, but averaged only 3.3 points and 2.1 rebounds. Going after the second forward spot are sophomores Marty Halsey, 6-8, Jim Dee, 6-7, and senior Rod Deleaver 6-6. However Dee had the highest scoring average of the three at only 2.7.

The backcourt depth is available as five players will vie for the second guard slot. Joe Garballiera (a transfer from Fordham), 6-1 Doug Downey, 5-10 Dave Holland, 5-11 Mike Balney and 6-2 Steve Anderson all have a shot at the job.

The Crusaders do have three freshmen coming in and they could see action. Jim Gooch and Bill Doran are both 6-5 while Kevin McAuley is 6-2.

MICHIGAN STATE

Possible Opponent in Maryland Invitational Tourney—Dec. 28-29

Judging on the number of experienced, proven players returning, Michigan State should have one of its most competitive basketball teams in some time this season.

Back is Big Ten Conference scoring champion Mike Robinson. The 5′ 11″ senior averaged 25.3 points per game and was the Spartans' top scorer in all but 4 games. The other guard position is up for grabs but may be filled by 6′ 2 junior Bill Glover, 6′ 1 junior Pete Davis, and 5′ 8 sophomore Benny White, all letter winners last year.

Juniors 6′ 7 Lindsay Hairston and 6′ 4 Terry Furlow, and 6′ 9 sophomore Cedric Milton are the top candidates for the starting forward spots. Both Hairston and Furlow were starters last year. Junior Lovelle Rivers 6′ 5 and 6′ 4 junior Tom McGill will give State additional depth.

Top freshmen include All-State 6′ 5 Edgar Wilson and 6′ 4 Wayne Butler.

Being a member of the strong Big Ten Conference, Michigan State has played against nationally ranked teams like Indiana and Minnesota. The Spartans will continue to uphold the traditionally strong Maryland Invitational Tournament.

NAVY

At Baltimore Civic Center—Jan. 19—8:00 P.M.

Coach Dave Smalley says about Navy's 1973-74 basketball team, "potentially the best since 1966", when he succeeded Ben Carnevale as head coach. The reason for such optimism is obvious, as Navy has seven of nine lettermen returning. These include all the starters who started against us last year. Top rebounder and scorer 6′ 7″ Jr., Bob Burns, is back (he had 18 points against Maryland). Mickey Hampton, 6′ 2″ Jr. and Bob Marshburn 6′ 3″ senior, both averaged 11 points a game last year. Senior Gary Carter 6′ 4″ 10 pt. average, gave us a lot of trouble last season in scoring 20 points. Also back are two players who played in every game last year, Bill Montgomery 6′ 3″ and 8.3 points per game, and Dave Stone, 6′ 2″ senior. Sophomore Jay Strosnider 6′ 4″ will give Navy stronger outside shooting and incoming plebe 6′ 8″ Chuck Zinky shows a lot of promise.

Navy has much more depth this season, coming off their first winning record in eleven years, and being the nations' 11th ranking defensive team, our game against the Midshipmen at the Baltimore Civic Center promises to be an exciting one.

NORTH CAROLINA

Away—Jan. 26—1:00 P.M.
Home—Feb. 13—9:00 P.M.

North Carolina has one of the finest teams in the country. They should improve over last year's 25-5 record, as the Tarheels had an excellent recruiting year to go with nine returning lettermen.

Up front UNC has the finest talent anywhere. Olympian Bobby Jones 6′ 8″ senior averaged 15 points, 10 rebounds, and will be a top pro draft pick this spring. Sophomore Mitch Kupchak 6′ 8″ and junior Ed Stahl 6′ 11″ (24 pts. against Maryland) will most likely start up front with Jones. Pushing these three are three excellent freshmen big men in everybody's high school All-American Tom LaGarde 6′ 11″ and Jeff Crompton 6′ 11″ 260 lbs., called by many a "franchise by himself". From Bladensburg High School, Bruce Buckley 6′ 8″ joins this group.

Add to these big men, four excellent 6′ 6″ players and you have a super strong front court. Returning is John O'Donnell 6.8 average—10 points against Md. and Charles Waddell. Freshman Walter Davis, high school All-American, often compared to former UNC player Charlie Scott, and another high school All-American freshman Jimmy Smith will continue to give the Tarheels unbelievable depth.

The guard spot is equally strong as the front court. Returning lettermen guards Darrell Elston 6′ 4″ (9.8 average, 20 against Md.), Ray Hite 6′ 0″, junior Brad Hoffman 5′ 10″ (12 pts. against Md.), Mickey Bell 6′ 5″ and Ray Harrison 6′ 2″ will compete for the starting spots. Non-lettermen returning at the guard spot include sophomores Jimmy Guill 6′ 3″, Dave Hanners 6′ 0″, and Tony Shaver 6′ 0″. Joining these guards is high school honorable mention All-American John Kuester 6′ 2″.

The Tarheels look forward to another great season. With experience, depth, and a very talented freshman group, Coach Smith has a lot of people believing they'll go all the way this year and will build a dynasty with this team.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE

Away—Jan. 13—12:00 Noon
Home—Jan. 30— 9:00 P.M.

The Wolfpack won 27 consecutive games last year, but, due to NCAA probation, couldn't play in the post season playoffs. This season there are no restrictions and their December 15 encounter with UCLA will be a big test.

Coach Norm Sloan lost only two starters, but will be as strong this year, led by sensational David Thompson, a unanimous All-American and ACC Player of the Year and 7′ 4″ All-American Tommy Burleson. Thompson led the ACC in scoring with a 24.7 average while Burleson averaged 17.9 and led the league in rebounding with 12.0 rebounds. Backcourt leader 5′ 7″ Monty Towe will start at the point, where he led the Wolfpack with 10 assists. Junior college transfer and All-American Morris Rivers 6′ 1″ will push Towe for the starting spot. The Pack will be really strong at the forward spots with Tim Stoddard 6′ 8″ and 6′ 8″ senior Steve Nuce returning. Another possibility at this position will be Phil Spence 6′ 8″ a junior college transfer from Vincennes. Other returning lettermen Greg Hawkins 6′ 5″, Craig Kuzmaul 6′ 5″, and Steve Smoral 6′ 3″.

Incoming freshmen include 6′ 11″ Bill Lake—All-State Indiana, and Mike Buurma 6′ 9″—All-State Ohio, and 6′ 2″ Bruce Dayhuff.

With N.C. State's experience and depth and a solid foundation of Thompson and Burleson, the Wolfpack will again be a powerhouse.

RICHMOND

At Baltimore Civic Center—
Jan. 2—8:30 P.M.

All-American and Southern Conference Player of the Year, Aron Stewart, will make Richmond a tough opponent. Stewart, who did not play against us last year, was the nation's fourth leading scorer, averaging 30.2 points a game. All of last year's Richmond victories came after Stewart became eligible in late December. Along with Stewart is 6′ 10″ Jeff Snider, 11.9 pts. per game (14 pts. and 7 reb. against Maryland last year) and the third leading scorer, 6′ 3″ Bob Jacobs, 10.7 points per game. Four other returning lettermen include forwards Gus Collier, 6′ 7″, and Dave Williams, 6′ 5″, and guards Steve Catlett, 6′ 5″ and Carlton Mack, 6′ 1″. Freshman guard recruit, Kevin Eastman, 6′ 1″, All-State in New Jersey, will battle for a starting berth. Other recruits include Chris Wright 5′ 10″, Nate Sherman 6′ 6″, junior college transfer Eric Gray 6′ 7″, and Bob McGurdy, a transfer from Virginia.

As I've scouted Richmond for the past three years, I'd definitely feel that with seven lettermen returning, two transfers, last season's top three scorers, All-American Aron Stewart, Richmond is a vastly improved team.

ST. JOSEPH'S

Possible Opponent in Cable Car Classic—Dec. 21-22

St. Joseph's was 22-6 and the Middle Atlantic Conference champions and played in the NCAA playoffs against Providence.

Gone is Olympian Mike Bantom (20.3 pts and 13.1 rebs) and Pat McFarland (20.3 pts.) but returning are six lettermen including three starters and a 6′ 8 transfer.

Kevin Furey, who stepped in and took over the center spot, averaging 6.6 points and 8.0 rebounds, will head up a front line which will also include two of the following trio, 6′ 3 senior Lou Peltzer (5.5), 6′ 6 senior Gene Prybella and 6′ 8 Ron Righter. Prybella lettered as a sophomore but sat out last season while Righter transferred from Duke where he was the sixth man two years ago.

Other forward prospects are 6′ 6 senior John Zipp, 6′ 7 junior Steve MacZinko and 6′ 6 sophomore Lee Scott with 6′ 10 sophomore John Snyder expected to be the backup for Furey.

The guard situation is in capable hands with all four of last year's back court players returning. Seniors 6′ 0 Jim O'Brien (5.9) and 6′ 2 Mike Moody (9.6) were starters with 6′ 0 junior Fran Rafferty and 6′ 4 senior Craig Kelly along with 6′ 3 sophomore Mike Borski the reserves.

Incoming frosh recruited by coach Jack McKinney include 6′ 7 Steve Vassolotti, 6′ 7 Charlie Gaines, Greg Krause, 6′ 6 Ed Benson and 6′ 2 Lyric Collier. Vassolotti and Krause could be factors.

St. Joseph's will be rebuilding, but it may take very long. The Hawks have some fine players and could very well be undefeated by the Cable Car Classic.

SAN FRANCISCO

First Round Opponent in Cable Car Classic—Dec.21-22—9:00 P.M.

Nationally-ranked San Francisco will be our first game of the famous Cable Car Classic. San Francisco (23-5 and WCAC champions last year), will be one of the toughest opponents we'll face all season. Returning are six lettermen which include their top two scorers and leading rebounders. All conference senior Phil

Smith, 6′ 4″, averaged 18.7 points per game and is called by Coach Gaillard, "the best guard ever to play at USF." Northern California Player of the Year and All-Conference, 6′ 9″ senior Kevin Restani returns supporting a 17.6 point average and 12.7 rebounds per game. Defensive ace Eric Fernsten, 6′ 9″, who blocked over six shots per game last season, will give USF tremendous inside strength. John Saich and Howard Smith, both 6′ 8″, will also help in the front-court, with senior John Boro, 6′ 0″ and junior-college transfer Tony Styles (6′ 2″ and 26.3 pts. per game) helping in the backcourt. High School All-American, Jeff Randell, 6′ 5″, will be pushing to start at a forward position. Also, recovering from a broken wrist is All-Los Angeles Player of the Year in high school, 6′ 5″ sophomore Richard Johnson.

As you can see, Maryland's first encounter against traditionally strong San Francisco will not be an easy game.

SANTA CLARA

Possible Opponent in Cable Car Classic—Dec.21-22

Santa Clara returns to the Cable Car Classic again this year supporting a 20-7 record. Gone are their top three scorers and top two rebounders, but known for playing underclassmen, they have a strong nucleus returning. Junior 6′ 8″ Remel Diggs averaged 10.7 points and Jerry Bellotti, 6′ 6″ junior, averaged 8.7 points. Starting at guard could be junior and co-captain 6′ 0″ Jerry Piro. Senior 6′ 7″ Jay Helman will serve as the other co-captain. Additional rebounding strength will come from 6′ 6″ Glenn Hubbard, senior 6′ 9″ Dave Wenig, Bill Scott, 6′ 7″ junior and freshman Scott Reider 6′ 11″.

This could be Maryland's first against Santa Clara, one of the West Coast's toughest basketball schools.

UCLA

Away—Dec. 1—8:00 P.M.

What words are left to describe the UCLA Bruins, for they've all been used. It's an unbelievable dynasty coached by an unbelievable coach, and led by an unbelievable player.

Coach John Wooden, winner of 7 straight NCAA titles, 9 out of the last 10, is currently supporting a 75 game winning streak, and reports that this year's team may be the best and deepest yet.

Incomparable Bill Walton 6′ 11″ turned down several million dollars to play his final year with the Bruins. The big redhead (20.4 pts. and 16.9 rebounds) may be the greatest center of all time. With Walton is All-American Keith Wilkes 6′ 6½″ senior at one forward and highly-regarded 6′ 7″ junior Dave Meyers will play the other. Guards will most likely be 5′ 11″ senior Tommy Curtis and senior playmaker Greg Lee 6′ 4″.

If this isn't enough, how's this for substitutes? There's 7′ 0 freshman All-American superstar Richard Washington or 7′ 0 sophomore Ralph Drollinger (24.4 pts. and 15.9 reb. with the J.V.) at center, freshman sensation 6′ 7 Gavin Smith and sophomore Pete Trgovich 6′ 5″ at forwards, sophomore redshirt Andre McCarter 6′ 2″ a high school All-American out of Philadelphia,, 5′ 11 freshman Jim Spillane, and Casey Corliss 6′ 6″ sophomore at guards.

Maryland has never had a more tough opening game and in no other place than Pauley Pavilion on the UCLA campus.

VIRGINIA

Away—Feb. 6—8:00 P.M.
Home—Mar. 2—3:00 P.M.

Joining Virginia's eight returning lettermen are some excellent freshman recruits. Gone is All-American Barry Parkhill, but the Cavaliers will have a strong team in the tough ACC. Back are Virginia's two leading rebounders and 2nd and 3rd top scorers. Gus Gerard 6′ 8″ averaged 14.8 points (19 and 16 pts against Md.) and super soph Wally Walker 6′ 7″ supports a 13.7 average (23 and 16 pts. against Maryland). Freshmen Ray Morningstar 6′ 9″ 215 lbs., and Ed Schetlick 6′ 8″ 220 lbs., together with junior Lanny Stahurski 6′ 9″ should give Virginia their strongest inside men in several years. Co-Captains Steve Morris 5′ 11″ and Bob McKeag, will add excellent leadership and experience to Virginia. The Cavaliers have signed two of the top freshman guards in the ACC. From nearby DeMatha High, Bill Langloh, 6′ 2″ and All-State in Virginia Mark Newlen 6′ 4″, are expected to push for starting spots. Other returning lettermen include 6′ 2″ Andy Boninti (10 pts. against Maryland last year), Bob McKeag (6′ 5″ and 13 pts. against Md.), Spencer Graham 6′ 8″ from Bethesda-Chevy Chase High, Bob Sefick 6′ 2″ and Brian Tully, 6′ 1″.

In my mind, the Cavaliers will have a very sound basketball team. It's always tough playing the Cavaliers home and away, and this year is no different.

WAKE FOREST

Away—Jan. 11—8:00 P.M.
Home—Feb. 27—8:00 P.M.

The major surprise in the ACC last season was the play of Wake Forest under its first year Coach Carl Tacy. The Demon Deacons finished with a 12-15 record, but in semi-final play in the ACC upset nationally ranked North Carolina in the opening round. Six lettermen are back, including three starters, plus an excellent recruiting year.

Wake is strong with guards led by All- Conference Tony Byers 21.3 points (30 and 20 pts. against Maryland), senior Bobby Dwyer 6′ 1″, and junior Phil Perry 6′ 4″ (14 pts. against Maryland). Skip Brown 6′ 0″, freshman ball-handling wizard, who was the MVP in the Tennessee state tournament, will push for a starting berth.

Wake's two leading rebounders Mike Parrish 6′ 6″ junior and 6′ 6″ sophomore Lee Foye will most likely start inside. Junior letterman 6′ 8″ Tim Stark will again see plenty of action. One freshman and two junior college transfers will strengthen the Deacons' inside game. They are Don Mulnix, 6′ 8″, Cal Stam, 6′ 8″ and Haley Hall 6′ 7″.

Carl Tacy's Deacons are not a team to be taken lightly. We split with Wake last season, and I feel they are stronger this year.

DR. WILSON H. ELKINS

PRESIDENT
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

The twenty-first president of the University of Maryland, Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, is serving his twentieth year in that office. He came to Maryland in September of 1954 from Texas Western College, a branch of the University of Texas at El Paso. He previously had served as President of San Angelo Junior College.

He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Texas where, as an undergraduate, he earned eight varsity letters in football, basketball and track.

His B. Litt. and Ph.D. degrees are from Oxford University where he studied as a Rhodes Scholar.

President Elkins' administration at Maryland has been marked by great physical plant growth and strengthening of academic standards. Faced with skyrocketing student enrollment, the University, under his leadership, has consistently sought to provide quality education for an increasing number of students.

Dr. Elkins has served as chairman of the executive committee and is past president of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges; a member of the Southern Regional Education Board and the steering committee of the Education Commission of the States; and past president of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the Southern University Conference.

DR. CHARLES E. BISHOP

CHANCELLOR COLLEGE PARK CAMPUS

Charles E. Bishop, Chancellor of the College Park Campus, came to the University of Maryland in 1970 from the University of North Carolina, where he served as Vice President.

Dr. Bishop arrived at the University during one of the most turbulent periods in the history of higher education in the United States. He and his administration guided the Campus through a time of national campus upheaval and helped to bring about major changes in the structure and organization of the College Park Campus.

Dr. Bishop is committed to the continued excellence of academic programs on the College Park Campus. Under his leadership, innovations have been made in many academic areas, including urban studies, applied mathematics, consumer economics, ethnic studies and other areas which are concerned with particular needs of today's society.

A nationally recognized scholar, teacher, and administrator, Dr. Bishop has served in numerous advisory capacities to State and Federal governments and to international agencies. He has also made significant contributions to the work of various professional and educational agencies.

Dr. Bishop took his bachelor of science degree at Berea College, Kentucky, his master of science at the University of Kentucky, and his doctor of philosophy in economics at the University of Chicago.

ALFRED J. HANLON

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Alfred J. Hanlon is concerned primarily with scheduling, team travel, personnel policies and general office administration. He has been with the Athletic Department since 1969, when he retired from the U.S. Air Force with the rank of colonel after directing the Maryland AFROTC program for two years.

A rated command pilot, Hanlon commanded a heavy bomber squadron in England and North Africa during World War II. He has served in a wide variety of command an dstaff positions since that time. His military decorations include the Legion of Merit, the Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters, the Air Force Commendation Medal and the Presidential Unit Citation Badge.

Hanlon is a native of Boston and a 1939 graduate of Harvard University, where he was a varsity letterman in track. He is married to the former Barbara Foster of Boston, and they have three grown children, Christopher, Brenda and Mark.

Mr. James H. Kehoe, Jr. (Director of Athletics)

Mr. S. Chester Ward (President, Alumni Association)

Mr. Donald Katz (President, SGA)

DR. JOHN E. FABER

CHAIRMAN, THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

First appointed to the athletic council in 1951, Dr. John Faber has served as its chairman since 1963. Dr. Faber is the University's representative to the Atlantic Coast Conference, of which the was president during the 1969-70 year.

For 36 years Dr. Faber served as lacrosse coach at the University. During that time the accomplishments of his teams secured a place for him as one of the greatest names in Maryland athletic history. He won 276 games suffering only 75 losses with two ties. Five times his Terps were undisputed national champions and two other times they shared that honor with another school.

A professor in the microbiology department, the University is fortunate to have such a man as its Faculty Chairman of Athletics.

Sports
Information
Director

Since assuming the position of SID in August of 1969 Jack Zane has been charged with publicizing the mushrooming Athletic program.

With a nationally ranked basketball program and a fast improving football team, Maryland is now covered by daily and weekly papers with a circulation of over 5.4 million. In addition to newspaper coverage, Maryland has received extensive national magazine attention in both sports.

Before graduating from Maryland with a B.S. in journalism, Jack served for three years as a student assistant to Joe Blair (now Public Relations Director for the Washington Redskins). After receiving his degree he served for two years as a full time assistant to Blair before moving to George Washington where he held the SID position for six years.

Jack is a member of CoSida, the Football Writers and Basketball Writers of America, the Sports Reporters Association of America, the Sports Reporters Association of Baltimore and ACC Sports Writers. He is also a member of the Touchdown Club of Washington and the Maryland chapter of Sigma Delta Chi.

A graduate of Southern High in Lothian, he is a native of Maryland and served four and a half years in the Navy before enrolling at the University.

He is married to the former Judy Allen of Fayetteville, W. Va., a graduate of the George Washington University.

PRE-SEASON ALL-AMERICAN SELECTIONS

Tom McMillen

Len Elmore

As they do during the season, Tom McMillen and Len Elmore have paced the Terrapins in pre-season All-American taps. Both were selections in four top-rated basketball yearbooks.

Both received All-American ratings in Street & Smith's Basketball. Elmore had the "muscles and moves" while McMillen "can work in either pivot or corner."

Super Sports Magazine rated the Terrapins' duo as All-American candidates and also list the Terps' John Lucas as a sophomore All-American.

Basketball Special credited Elmore with being "probably the most unheralded played in the college ranks. . . . Elmore has become an outstanding defensive center." McMillen is credited for his great shooting.

Finally Popular Sports Basketball lists McMillen as a first team All-American for the second year in a row.

With all these pre-season accolades, the "Mr. Inside and Mr. Outside" of Maryland basketball are ready for the new season, with a superb assistance from pointman John Lucas.

Why a $1,900 Pinto should have the same tires as a $9,000 Porsche.

A Porsche can take a hair-pin turn without losing an inch of traction in the process.

It can eat up a straightaway without the least bit of fishtail.

And it can make a panic-stop with virtually perfect control.

It's no coincidence that the tires on so many Porsches are Pirelli Cinturato radials.

Now admittedly, your small car wasn't designed to handle exactly like a Porsche.

But if you're like most small car owners, you probably drive it as if it were.

And as a result, you wind up putting an incredible amount of strain on your tires.

That's why when you take your little economy car around a sharp corner, you need a tire that will stay glued to the road.

Or when you have to pass another car on the highway, you need a tire that will get you around and back without your rear end swaying out from under you.

Or when you have to make a sudden stop on a wet slippery road, you need a tire that can grip the road like the treads of a tank.

In other words, you need a Pirelli Cinturato.

Thanks to their unique radial ply construction, Cinturatos can out-corner, out-stop and just plain out-maneuver just about any tire made. Especially on wet roads.

And get great mileage while doing it.

Yet Cinturatos ride smoothly and silently.

Perhaps this is why many of the world's finest automobiles come with Pirellis as original equipment.

No matter what kind of small car you drive, European, Japanese, or American, there's a Pirelli Cinturato to fit your car.

So even if you're not driving around in a Porsche, at least you can drive around on a Porsche's tires.
